FINE JEWELRY SALONS

Jacobson's

COVERUP

When spring breezes are more damp than idyllic and more blustery than soft, you can go crisp or shiny to stay in the fashion picture.

Rainwear offers a wide range of fashionable protection against spring's unpredictable weather conditions.

You can find slick and sleek rain slickers, dashing trench coats, short pantcoat versions of the all-weather coverup and the hooded beauties that give complete protection.

When it comes to trench coats, the range covers the sturdiest of the sturdy or one of the season's very newest looks, the thin, almost weightless silky looking vinyl.

This all-purpose coat is treated to be translucent and pearlized, silvered, bronzed, or newest of all, turned into a golden haze to be worn with equal dash day or night.

Beged Oe of Israel does the trenchcoat in silver, bronze or gold and Claude Havrey of France fashions it in pearlized beige or gunmetal.

And of course you can count on Misty Harbor for a range of spring coats smart as they are practical, complete with Zepel treatment to resist rain and stains.

Soft and light raincoats are new on the rain scene from Lubad and Calvin Klein.
