Hills wed 50 years

Gertrude and Clair Hill, residents of Livonia for the last seven years and of Farmington for 14 years before, marked 50 years of married life with a family dinner at their daughter's home.

The couple married April 14, 1927, in the Methodist Church of Jackson. Mrs. Hill is a native of Saginaw and her husband came to Michigan from Griffin, Ga.

They have one daughter Janet Kirchoff of Loveland Street, Livonia, and a granddaughter, Sheryl Kirchoff.

Mr. Hill worked for Bill Brown Ford, Inc., where he was commercial sales manager until his retirement. He is a 32d degree Mason life member, affiliated with the Kluwning Lodge in Detroit.

Further celebration of the golden anniversary is planned when relatives in other parts of the country come here for Sheryl's wedding later in the spring.
