Mercy slates annual fair

Our Lady of Mercy High School's eighth annual fun fair will be April 29, 30 and May 1 on the school grounds. Eleven Mile and Middlebelt. On Friday, the fair will run from 5-10 p.m.; from noon to 10 p.m. Saturday, and from 1-9 p.m. Sunday. Students at the 1,250 all-girl school have selected the theme Mystical Magical Fair. More than 30 rides and many games and booths will be featured, according to general chairman Rick Trentman and Mrs. Cathy Hopkins. Student chairmen are Sally Palmer, Joan Stock, Lis Miesiewicz and Michelle Abowd. Proceeds of the fair are used for the school's operating budget. Part of the profit will be added to the Grant-in-Aid Fund, which aids approximately 50 families a year to meet tuition costs.

Lekovich participates in operation

Navy Operations Specialist JC Daniel W. Lekovich participated in the U.S. Sixth Fleet operation National Week XXII. He is the son of Robert E. Lekovich, 32814 Macomb, Farmington, and a crewmember aboard the guided missile cruiser USS Albany. The ship is homeported in Gaeta, Italy.

Lekovich is a 1972 graduate of Farmington High School who attended Lake Superior State College and joined the Navy in 1975.

The exercise took place in the Tyrrenian and Ionian Seas, near Sicily.

Morning school sets open house

Interested families and educators are invited to New Morning School's annual open house from 3-5 p.m., May 1.

The elementary and middle school pioneered the establishment of family-centered education and now offers individualized experiential programs to children from nine metropolitan communities.

The school is at 1036 Haggerty, south of Cherry Hill, in Canton.

Schaeffer named district officer

Judge Margaret Schaeffer, 47th District Court judge, Farmington, has been elected secretary-treasurer of the Oakland County District Judges Association.
