" dis The great interest shown in the games of last week and the many requests for another tourn-ament, has induced Mr. Grace to put on a two-man tournament, starting next Monday, May 26, at 8 p. m.

Misses Marie Muttschall, Heler Mitschall, Grace Boppre, Ethel Henning, Gertrude Henning and Ruth Prindle, of Detroit, visited last Sunday with the latter's sig-ter, Mrs. Ralph. Lepley and made a trip to the woods for wild flowers. starting next includy, may 25, at 8 p. m. There is already a large entry, with well matched teams, and the event promises to be very in-teresting, both to the contest-ents and spectators.

Decoration Day 1919

Decoration Day 1919 The usual Decoration Day services will be held in Farmington on Friday, May 30, 1919. The program will be furnished by the High School teachers and pupils. At 1:30 p. m., the pro-cession will march to Oakwood cemetery, led by the Farmington Silver Cornet Band, and after the usual ceremonies of decorat-ing the graves of the comrades and the decoration of the Ceno-taph in the memory of the un-known dead, the processin will counter march to the Town Hail, where the program, as prepared by the High School teachers, will be rendered. All are invited. Children re-quested to bring flowers.

Of course, Washing-ton is the official capital of the nation, and has been designated by law as the place of bushess of the Federal Government. But if the head of the executive de-partment is free to transfer his place of business to Paris for months at a time, why should not the legislative department be privileged to do the same?— Oxford Leader. The pupils of Miss Power's and Miss Yerkes' rooms, in our school, enjoyed a picnic last Thursday. sechool, enjoyed a picnic last Thursday. After dating their lunches in the school room, because of cloudy weather, the children were surprised to find Mr Power waiting to take them to Collins, woods in his truck. Miss Marion Power and Mrs Vine Yerkes as-sisted in the care of the children. After spending an hour in the woods, Mr. Power returned with his truck, bringing them to the village, where all the youngsters started for their homes, declar-ing they had had a fine time.
