The reference that women have learned to put in crackers is being well illustrated at the tea being given for returning soldiers and sailors.
Every woman in the metropolis has in her pantry a generous supply of the National Biscuit Company's crackers, which are universally accepted products.
Nettie, a coquely young woman, nee of the Navy, still in uniform, found four boxes of Graham Crackers, one of them containing a company at tea at her uptown home the other afternoon, including several young officers, a battleship in port.
She had Fig Newtons, every soldier cracker, and a box of Graham Crackers.
That children should have robust appetites is natural and proper. It is a sign they are strong, well and growing. Encourage them—give them N.B.C. Graham Crackers—even between meals.
