The bullding of good roads is of the greatest importance to a community. What kind of a road should be built Of what should it be constructed?

Good Roads Like This Bring Farme Nearer to City Markets.

What are the things to be considered in locating the road? What "grade" should be maintained? How should the road be drained? What are the laws governing highway construction? There are a few questions answered in extension circular 68 dealing with

In extension circular 68 dealing with country road.

Matters of prime consideration in locating a road are: Easy grades, good drainage, exposure to sunshine, elimination of culverts and bridges by avoiding unnecessary creek, crossings, directness and the number of farms to avoiding unnecessary creek crossings, differences and the number of farms to be served for a given length of road. Whenever possible to avoid it, a good location should not be rejected merely because a certain roadway has been in use for some time; If the location of a used road is bad it should be changed if possible; hardoot ingreads of the control of the contro eers usually figure a 6 per Engineers usually figure a 6 per dent grade as a maximim.

Road work in Missouri has not been as well managed as other public work. Projects have been too narrowly lim-ited to localities! resulting in frag-mentary effort. Skilled locating and supervision of construction have been generally lacking. The remedies are, First, a wider co-operation and than adoption of broad schemes of improve-ment, preferably with units no smaller than counties. Second, the absolute elimination of political considerations in the spending of money. Tather, set-

I. The Apocates' Commission (Matt. 28:18:20).

1. The authority of Jesus. (v. 18). God gave him all authority in heaven and one earth. As, mediator and coming king be possessed all authority. This authority, extends over all the material word, angels, wicked men, devills, and his own people. God highly exalted him and gave him a name which is above every name (Phil. 2:0). There is no other way of salvation, for the entire matter of redemption is in his hards (Acts 4:12). Since God has so highly honored him it is extreme folly to expect to be saved while disreparding him.

2. The obligation of the aposites (vv. 10:20).

(1) It was to teach, that is, make disciples of all the nations (v. 10). They were to make known to the whole world that Christ had died to save sinders and that God had committed to reers and that God had committed to reers and that God had committed to word that Christ had died to save sinners and that God hai committed to Jesus the redemption of the word.

purifying effect of the blood of Christ and soleumly dedicates to the service of God. This baptism must be to the name of the Father. Son and Holy Ghost, showing that the believer has been brought into definite relationship to each member of the Holy Trinity.
(3) Teach the disciples obedience
(v. 20). Profession is not enough, it must issue in obedience. Fath must result in works. To call Jesus "Lord and do not the things which he says
