MARTIN BOMBER FLYING OVER WASHINGTON

View taken from another airplane showing the Martin bomber which has started on a trip around the United States, passing the Washington monument.

CLEARING AN AERIAL MAIL FIELD WITH DYNAMITE

At Newark, N. J., a small army of men is busily engaged in clearing Heller field which, when completed, will be the first United States aerial mail landing field in the country. Our photograph shows the moment of detonation of a charge of dynamite beneath a mighty tree stump, which is torn from the grounds, roots and all.

SIMON LAKE'S NEW SALVAGING SUBMARINE

HAS MET 20 PRESIDENTS

This new salvaging submarine, designed by Simon Lake, permitting men without divers' costumes to walk on the bottom of the ocean, was put to a severe test in New York harbor over the wreck of a government boat sunk during the war. At the right is a photograph of Mr. Lake.

When President Wilson stopped hands the other day with Mrs. H. W. Somers, wife of General Somers of Civil War fame, he was the twentieth chief executive of the United States to whom she had been introduced. Mrs. Somers made her debut at the White House on the arm of Daniel Webster when William Harrison was president. The aged lady declares that since that time she has attended many of the social functions given by presidents and that she was intimately acquainted with many of the executives. Washington has been her home for 90 years. Despite her advanced age she is very active and in the stormiest or hottest weather can be seen among her wards—the poor.

BIDDING THE YEOMEN (F) FAREWELL

This photograph shows the yeomen (F) and marinettes of the United States navy being mustered out on the grounds of the White House. To the strains of jazz, reviewed by Secretary Daniels and naval officers, and with moments interspersed with wit and sorrow, the farewell was picturesque in its setting. They will be retained for clerical service in the navy department, assuming civil status.

Death.
 Death is nothing more or less than slipping back into your own subconsciousness, and so becoming greater and finer and more active—more useful, too—and with grander powers than we ever had in our limited imperfect bodies. Life is nothing but an episode in the universal life.
 Death is just a change of direction then, really; that's all.—From "The Promise of Life" by Algeron Blackwood.

Creed Wonderful Canoeists.
 "The canoeists of the Cree and the Montagnais are the most wonderful canoeists in the world," says S. E. Sangster, writing of "The Woods Indian" in "Boys' Life." "They possess a sixth sense in rapid-running and in their ability to find a safe way to a bet at odds that they will run it and come through it—even through water the mere glimpse of which makes your hair stand up and sends chills chasing up and down your spine."

Heard at Longwood.
 "So Blank, our old hard hitter, doesn't play any more. Is he reconciled to married life?"
 "I guess so. The other morning I saw him sitting ashes through his old tennis racket."

On the Beach.
 "This seashore resort reminds me of 'Sunday morning.'"
 "So quiet, eh?"
 "Not that. The belles are peeling; don't you know."—Boston Transcript.

The Secret of Good Health Is No Secret
 It Consists of Following a Few Simple Rules

Clean Up Your Mouth

Indigestion
 Food, to be properly digested, must be thoroughly chewed and moistened through and through with saliva. Your stomach cannot chew your food for you—it has no teeth.
Constant Pain and Discomfort
 No one can be healthy and happy unless he is free from pain. BAD TEETH, sooner or later, will cause misery, suffering, loss of sleep and wages. If Nature hasn't intended teeth to be important to us the warning would not be so plain—they wouldn't ache so when diseased.
 A dirty mouth often results in pyorrhea, which means that you will constantly be swallowing the pus (germs) that is being produced around the roots of the teeth so affected.
 Don't take poison in this form. It often causes heart disease, rheumatic pain, neuralgia, painful joints, ulcers of stomach, cancer, and other long disabling ailments.

Traveling Fingers.
 Typists' fingers are the most amazing travelers in creation, and are capable of going tremendous distances without the fatigue that would come to the feet and legs in performing a similar journey. In ordinary type-writing the hand may travel, according to an expert, 10,000 miles a year and not indicate any impairment in efficiency. This reform of course to the average typist in an office.

"Darkest Just Before Dawn."
 It is just when a man gets down the lowest, and things look the darkest around him, that light breaks in and hope begins to live again.—E. B. L.

Washington's Advisers.
 When Washington formed his cabinet it had but four members, the Interior department being unknown, the war and navy departments being under one head, and the postmaster general being subordinate to the treasury. Nevertheless of these four positions, he gave two to Virginians, Secretary of State Jefferson and Attorney General Randolph; one to New York, Alexander Hamilton, and one to Massachusetts, Henry Knox.

Puzzle for the Jury.
 Here is a summing up which is hard to beat for subtlety: "Gentlemen of the jury: In this case the counsel on both sides are unintelligible, the witnesses incredible, and the plaintiffs and defendants are both such bad characters that to me it is a matter of indifference how you give your verdict."

Didn't Luce Any Time.
 Ruth was left to watch baby brother in his bed while mother prepared dinner. In a few minutes followed a thump and then a wail. Running upstairs mother said, "I thought I left you to take care of brother?" "Well, mother, I did call you the very minute he hit the floor," was the comforting response.

Seemed Like Wasted Time.
 Markets for a short time during the war were not doing any delivering. Mary, age five, one night at bedtime was saying the Lord's prayer. Coming to the word "deliver us from evil," she exclaimed: "Mother what is the use of praying for that, they won't deliver a thing in this town."

Washing the Order of the Bath.
 A very youthful British tourist, arrived at an old-fashioned hostelry, had the imprudence to order a bath in his room for the next morning. Very early he was awakened by sounds of hammering somewhere overhead. Then followed much bumping on the stairs; evidently a large and cumbersome weight was being brought down. The noise ceased outside his own door, which flew open, and in came a great two strong man, bearing the big bath from the public bathroom, dismounted for his morning ablutions!
