Stanley F. Smith

Prescription Druggist

Three barns on the Perry Vaughn farm at Bloomfield Center were burned last Sunday, with a loss of some $6,000. Eleven head of cattle were liberated by some workmen in the neighborhood. It is thought to have been the work of tramps.

Two Car-loads of Stoves

Such large purchases direct from the factory, in connection with our no-rent, low selling expense means that here the prices are the lowest on stoves as well as on furniture, rugs, etc.

The Renown Underfeed

Burns Coal, etc., on a new principle as applied to stoves. Has all the advantages of all improved stoves, with none of their disadvantages, besides qualities all its own. It gives more heat with less fuel than any other. It consumes and turns into heat all gasses, soot, smoke, etc., leaving an ash as fine as powder. You need empty the ash pan only twice a week. No smoke or soot can escape into the room. It does not clog up the stovepipe or chimney. With it you can use soft coal as cleanly as hard. It is a wonderful stove and is what these times of high-priced coal demand. It will soon save its cost in fuel saved.

People
