'College Night' At C'ville

Clarencville will host its annual "College Night" on Oct. 2 with Redford Union, Tuscola and Plymouth high schools invited to attend.

Featured will be three 35-minute sessions enabling students, their parents, school administrators and counselors to visit representatives of several colleges and universities. There will be a 10-minute break between each session.

The evening will begin in Clarencville high school at 7:30 p.m., according to William Waters, high school counselor. Maps and programs will be available for all who attend.

COMMUNITY COLLEGES to be represented include Henry Ford, Highland Park, Oakland Community and Schriber.

Public institutions sending representatives are Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan, Ferris State, Grand Valley State, Michigan State, Oakland University, Michigan Technological University, Lake Superior State, Northern Michigan, Saginaw Valley University of Michigan, U-M Dearborn Campus, Wayne State University and Western Michigan.

Non-public institutions will include Albion College, Alma Aquinas, Cleary, Detroit Bible College, Detroit College of Business, Detroit Institute of Technology, General Motors Institute, Hillsdale College, Hope, Kalamazoo, Lawrence Institute of Technology, Madonna College, Michigan Christian Junior College, Olivet, Suomi, University of Detroit and Walsh Institute of Accountancy.

Shakespeare Comedy On Tap For Students

More than 100 Clarencville high school students will be traveling to Stratford, Ontario, Oct. 8 to attend a performance of "Measure for Measure" at the Festival Theatre. The trip to view the Shakespearean comedy is being organized by Mrs. Dorothy Bennett, member of the English department and a high school counselor.

Roger Gets The Pickle

"Roger the Grape," as State Sen. Roger Craig (D-Deerborn) is known for his efforts on behalf of grape workers, became "Roger the Pickle" at the executive board meeting of the 18th Congressional District Democratic Organization. District Chairman Aldo Vagnozzi presented Craig a pickle — actually a cucumber — as a reminder of the senator's recent stint as a migrant worker in western Michigan.
