Culinary arts new at OCC

A culinary arts program will be offered by Oakland Community College at the Orchard Ridge Campus during the fall semester of 1978. The planned program of study was developed to fill a need for qualified, well-trained chefs throughout the hospitality industry.

Students in the program are offered a two-year associate degree in applied sciences.

Those who complete one semester of the program may opt for study in dietetic management. For those who complete two semesters of the program, further study is offered for food service management or hotel-motel management.

Enrollment will be limited to 120 students per year.

Applications are now being accepted.

Deposits add up

More mortgage money and reasonable mortgage rates, now adding timber to the current housing boom, is the reason $35 billion was deposited into savings accounts in the first eight months of 1977 at savings and loan associations, according to the United States League of Savings Associations.
