On January 18, 1963, Metropolitan National Bank commenced operations and in the ensuing fifteen years, it has achieved a position of importance and leadership in the Farmington Community.

We have enjoyed growth in the last fifteen years, the bank has prospered and its position is firmly established. The future continues to be a challenge and we enter it with the confidence of experience and the anticipation the bank will continue to grow and prosper through providing outstanding community banking to the Farmington area.
