Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Turkington Jr., of Farmington, are happy to announce the birth of a son, Kenneth B. Turkington III, Aug. 25 in St. Mary Hospital, Livonia. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Hammond Sr. of Farmington. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Becker of Livonia.

MISS CANDIE SLAGLE, daughter of Mrs. John Slagle of Farmington, will leave for Grand Valley State College located near Grand Rapids on Sunday for her sophomore year. She will be studying elementary education. This past summer Candie went to Sweden as an exchange student. While in Sweden she visited Eva Hjelmarsson, an exchange student who lived with the Slagle family in 1968. Candie is a member of the local sorority Theta Tau at Grand Valley, a group directed for helping different organizations such as the Heart Fund, Michigan Blood Center and United Foundation. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chismark of Meadowbrook spent last weekend in Chicago with their son, Third Class Machinist mate Steven Chismark who has been assigned to the Seventh Fleet. Steven will spend a few days at home before leaving for Vietnam.

A FAREWELL luncheon was given for Rita Paterson of Napoleon, on Tuesday. Mrs. Paterson, formerly of Panama, has been living in the Farmington area for the past few years. She will make her new home in Hollywood, Fla. The luncheon, given in the home of Mrs. "Skip" Karp of Norwood Hills, was attended by many of Rita's close friends. Welcome home to Mrs. Mabel E. Burgess of Peppermint who has been visiting her sister in Round Lake, N.Y., Warehous Point, Windsor Locks, Conn., and Springfield, Mass., this past six months. Mrs. Burgess formerly was president of the Pioneer Golden Age Club. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newsum of Whittington entertained 24 people at a pool party. The coaches and their wives of the Rockets Junior Farmington Football League attended the potluck party. Torches lit the area around the pool. A good time was enjoyed by all.

People celebrating their anniversaries this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Steidle of Powers Rd. on Sept. 15, 45 years of happiness. Arnold is a retired postman and is an avid pinocle player at the Senior Citizens Drop-in Center. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Leach of Powers Rd. celebrated their 28th anniversary on Sept. 22. But due to the sudden death of Raymond Leach in Loveland, Ohio, their anniversary was quietly spent at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Felt and children of Owenton, Iowa, spent last week with Steven's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Felt of Farmington. Steven is a 1959 graduate of Farmington Senior High.

MISS LINDA YOUNGBLOOD, a 1967 graduate of Farmington High and daughter of the James Youngbloods formerly of Jacksonville St. and now a resident of Clearwater, Fla., was married this past spring to Bill Leudbetter of Cincinnati. They are making their home in Cincinnati.

Another Michigan resident has moved to Florida—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edwards, who have lived many years on Middle Belt Rd. and Centralia, in Redford Township, have sold their home and moved to Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamlin and daughters Shelley and Karen of Farmington, have just returned from a three-week vacation in the Texas Panhandle where Mrs. Hamlin's folks are.

Paul Mathy's son, Mr. and Mrs. John Mathy of Rockwell St., just returned from a two-week vacation in Santa Ana, Calif. Paul is a senior at Wayne State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hamlin Jr. of Lexington St. are spending two weeks at Clearwater and North Palm Beach, Fla., visiting Mrs. Hamlin's mother and Luther's sister, Mrs. Ervin C. Martin and husband, Ervin.

He recently visited several Far Eastern ports during the ship's September-in-port period. Among the ports visited were Nagasaki and Hong Kong.

ROBERT S. HANES

Hanes Favors 'New City'

FARMINGTON Residents of the Farmington area "are furnished with a unique opportunity to start a new city," states Robert S. Hanes of 2101 Birchwood, a candidate from the city for the charter commission election on Nov. 4.

Favoring consolidation of Farmington's four governmental units, Hanes says, "Persons elected to the charter commission should have the personal capacity to help realize the advantages which come from this opportunity."

"I believe that my education, professional background and work experience has given me this capacity, or I would not be a candidate for such an important post."

A certified public accountant, Hanes holds a degree in accounting and a master's degree in social science from Michigan State University.

He is director of the auditing division of the Michigan Credit Union League, Southfield, and served in 1964-65 as a delegate to the Republican county and state conventions. A council member at St. John Lutheran Church, he is a former Cub Scout committee chairman and now serves on Boy Scout committees. He is married and has three children.

Parents Attend Class

FARMINGTON Parents of East Junior High School pupils may "sit-in" on their children's classes at an open house Oct. 6. It will be held in the school, 23000 Middle Belt, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

A copy of the student's schedule will help parents to find the proper classrooms in order to meet all of the teachers' ed every 10 weeks," he added, who are involved daily with their children. During "study hour" or "lunch period" parents may join teachers and other parents for refreshments in the cafeteria.

Donald Keen, principal, issued a reminder that open house is not the time to discuss individual problems. "Father," he said, "it is planned as a social meeting to give parents and faculty an opportunity to know one another."

"Report cards will be marked every 10 weeks," he added, "with unsatisfactory work reports sent home in the middle of each grading period." Conferences may be scheduled at the parents' convenience.
