Police suspect robbery link

Two armed robbers still at large after holding up the Tasty Barbecue Restaurant, 2326 Plymouth, Thursday night may be part of a gang that has hit the area recently, Redford Police Lt. Dale Johnson says.

Johnson connects this robbery with ones in Garden City, Farmington Hills, Wayne, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights,

Warren and Lincoln Park. In each instance, the robbers were armed and wore red ski masks.

Garden City seems to be the worst hit in the outbreak. Within two days last week, three Garden City pizza parlors were robbed. Each time a single man was involved and the three robberies netted about $1,200.

In the Redford robbery, the two men walked through an open back door about 9:45 p.m.

One man, described as about 5-4 with a slim build, forced the restaurant owner to floor in the backroom while his partner forced the assistant manager to empty the till at gun point.

Assistant Manager Sherrie Gonzales, 18, of Redford, gave the thieves about $500. The business owner, Christopher Sweeney, 25, was held on the floor in a backroom during this time.
