Livonia Stevenson won the Inter-Lakes League girls' track champion-stip last week for the fourth season a row, but coach Liz Embree and her Spartans are finding that the task becomes more difficult every year. Stevenson scored 92% points, only 6% more than runner-up Pontiac Northern. Millord Lakeland landed hird with 59 points, Walled Lake Cen-tral fourth with 33, Farmington fifth with 25% and Waterford sixth with 12. "I didn't think we were going to win. I was afraid to figure the score in advance," said Embree. "It was those kids who came through and got those second through sixth-place points who really won the meet for us." Stevensoph and a pair of individual double victors during the meet. Julie Voyles, a senior, set new con-ference recores by running the two mile in 11:25.4 and the mile in 5:14.5.

Karen Schmidt, also a senior, set a new league record in the 220-yard dash, 28.2 seconds, and also won the 100-yard dash, 11.5 seconds. The Spartans' other first-place finish was recorded by Katy Donovan, who hurled the discus 110 feet 7½ inches.

Two other girls also won a pair of individual events during the league gathering.

Linda Riendl, from Walled Lake Central, long jumped 16 feet 11 inches and completed the hurdles in 15.3 secords. Roslyn Berry, from Pontiac Northern, won the 880-yard run, 2:24.8,
and the 440-yard run, 1:01.8.

Northern won all three relays.
"The first two years we won (league meet), it was no contest," said Embree. "In the last two years, both Lakeland and Northern have come on
