Will-O-Way Opens Oct. 13

A repertory of three different plays will open Oct. 13 in the Will-O-Way Playhouse to Bloomfield Hills.

Scheduled for performances are "Luv," "Star Spangled Girl," and the musical "The Apple Tree." Performances are at 8:30 p.m. nightly Tuesdays through Sundays.

The occasional introduction of experimental plays for short runs is being considered by the resident company for later in the year after the three-show repertory has been cycled. The repertory season is but one of three major phases of activity in the Playhouse.

Will-O-Way will conduct a program of advanced theater training, leading to college credits, in addition to the usual program of classes.

In addition, the theater operates an apprentice theater instructed in acting and theater techniques leading to junior, senior and master certificates in competence.
