

Acting troupes perform at festival

The Attic Theatre will sponsor a four-day State Theatre Festival during the First Michigan Congress on the Arts, Wednesday-Sunday. The festival features acting companies from across Michigan and will include comedy, drama, mime and puppet shows. The shows are free and open to the public. The Attic Theatre Festival is a portion of the celebration activities accompanying the First Michigan Congress on the Arts. Slated for Thursday-

Saturday at the Detroit Plaza Hotel, the congress will draw Michigan citizens interested in improving the cultural environment in Michigan.

The accompanying four-day arts festival will highlight the diversity of Michigan talent and includes an arts and crafts fair, exhibitions and music and dance performances. The celebration is sponsored by the Michigan Council for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts, with the cooperation of the City of Detroit.

2 top stars appearing at theater on weekend

RAY CHARLES

Martin Mull, star of the "America 2-Night" TV show, will perform live on stage at the Birmingham Theatre on Saturday.

The versatile Mull will entertain with songs, stories and the kind of quips that have made his late-night TV show a runaway success.

Dick Purtan, WXYZ radio personality, will emcee the show. Mull will give two performances, at 7 and 10:30 p.m.

The Birmingham Theatre also will host the music of Ray Charles on Sunday. Charles will perform with the Rudelettes and the Ray Charles Orchestra at 2 and 7 p.m.

Tickets for Martin Mull and Ray Charles are available at the box office, 644-0281.
