SHARON GOODWIN

CYNTHIA AKIN

Goodwin and Akin win scholarships

Sharon Goodwin and Cynthia Akin have won the Farmington Area Jaycee Auxiliary vocational scholarships given each year to high school graduates who will be pursuing vocational careers. Ms. Goodwin, of 24891 Creekside, Farmington Hills, attended Harrison High School, and will enter Northwood Institute in Midland. She plans to major in business administration, and eventually hopes to pursue a career with the airlines. Her interest in music has won her roles in the school's musical productions. She is a member of the concert choir and mixed ensemble. Ms. Akin, of 21240 Whitlock, Farmington, will enter Schoolcraft College where she will work for an associate degree to become a medical secretary. She has taken the medical office assistance courses at the South West Oakland Vocational Education Center in Walled Lake and this summer will be working for Dr. Raj Patil, in Quakertown Medical Center.
