

Just in case

Even though nobody is likely to think about playing hockey in the park for at least the next week, and even though a good sheet of ice isn't likely to appear at Shawnee and Farmington Road anytime soon, you never know what kids these days will be up to next. Just in case grass hockey becomes the latest rage since punk rock, this patch of land is safe.

Lentes to recruit

Pvt. Robert F. Lentes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Lentes, Sr., of Lakeland, Farmington Hills, will be a recruiter side at the Farmington recruiting station of the U.S. Army before leaving for Korea.

Lentes is a 1977 graduate of Harrison High School. He joined the army last year and did basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C., and studied at Fort Gordon, Ga.

Lifesaver program

A lifesaving program designed for older adults is making its debut in the Farmington area via the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation department.

The "Vial of Life" program is designed to make important information available to anyone who is aiding a senior adult in an emergency. The adult's insurance numbers, special health information, doctor's name and phone number, the phone number of a family relative to call in an emergency, and other pertinent information is included in a plastic vial kept in the refrigerator. The refrigerator was selected because it provides easy access and is fireproof. The vials, which are free, are available at the senior citizen "Gathering Place," located at 28600 Eleven Mile in the Mercy Center.

For more information, call 474-6115. All rescue personnel in the Farmington area are being notified of the "Vial of Life" program.

Similar programs are in use in Livonia, Redford, Rochester, and Monroe.
