MRS. WILLIAM VANCE
(Corrine Mallon)

Corrine Mallon Wed To William Vance

Corrine Mallon and William Vance, 1969 graduates of the University of Michigan, exchanged wedding vows Sept. 20 in Emanuel United Church of Christ in Royal Oak.

The Rev. Walter Harrell officiated for the evening ceremony, assisted by the Rev. C.A. Albright, grandfather of the bridegroom. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mallon of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. William Vance of Sylvania, Ohio, formerly of Royal Oak.

The bride created her own wedding ensemble, an A-line peau de sole gown covered by Chantilly lace and an elbow-length silk illusion veil. Her bouquet was white phalaenopsis orchids and pink sweetheart roses.

Joyce Mallon, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Arlene Mallon, another sister, and Janis Pierce.

Their pale pink linen dresses also made by the bride, featured pink/lace front panels. They carried cascades of variegated pink and white carnations.

Bradley Vance was his brother's best man. His ushers were Randy Vance, his brother, Don Leppat and Richard Mallon, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise blue tulle dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a safe-to-late costume dress with matching lace coat and accessories.

THE EAST AND WEST great halls of Northland Inn were the setting for the dinner reception.

FOLLOWING a brief wedding trip in northern New York state, the couple will reside in Wappingers Falls, N.Y. The groom is employed in Systems Development Laboratory of IBM in Poughkeepsie.

The new Mrs. Vance will be teaching and doing graduate work at the State University College of New York.

Architecture Art Is AAUW Program Topic On Oct. 15

A slide program entitled "Architecture: Society's Reflection in the Arts" will highlight the Oct. 15 meeting of the Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW).

Mrs. Don Briggs will narrate the program, which is the result of two years of work by the members of an AAUW arts study group. The meeting, which will also include a business session and social hour, will begin at 8 p.m. in the First Farmington Savings and Loan Building.

AN IMPORTANT item on the business agenda will be discussion and formation of some of the AAUW's branch study groups for the coming year.

Four major areas of study have been chosen by the association for the coming year. Farmington branch study areas and the group chairman are: Education--The Academic Community, Mrs. James Auge and Mrs. Henry Heaton.

World Problems--American Foreign Policy, Mrs. Walter Fronczak and Mrs. Myron Greenfield.

Cultural Interests--This Bequeathed: Earth, Mrs. Ernest Gaston.

STUDY GROUPS may be attended by interested women who are non-college graduates, although actual AAUW membership is not permitted without a degree. Women interested in the AAUW or a study group should contact Mrs. John Smith at 474-2537.

Hostesses for the Oct. 15 session are: Mrs. Robert O'Brien; Mrs. Hugh Stewart; Mrs. George T. Bird; Mrs. Robert Brauer; Mrs. James Cavanaugh; Mrs. Carl E. Dahlstrom; Mrs. Stephen H. Droeger; Mrs. William F. Grant; Mrs. Myron Greenfield; Mrs. Friedrich Kaechle; Mrs. Daniel J. Stein; and Mrs. Stephen Toldy.

The study groups meet once a month, usually in the homes of members who come from the Farmington, Livonia, Southfield and West Bloomfield areas.
