

Family orientation alters Goose Lake image

By SUZIE MARKS
Remember T. Garden and Van Winkle blaring, "God, Love and Rock and Roll" before thousands of people at Goose Lake Rock Festival, near Jackson, Mich., in the summer of 1970? Remember how park owner and Southfield contractor Richard Songer was charged—but found not guilty—of aiding in the sale of narcotics.

Well, times have changed. Eight years later, Greenwood Acres, once the site of music-loving fans, has had a face lift. Park-goers won't find rock and roll concerts, drugs or singles. "The park's restricted to married people and their families," Songer said in a recent telephone interview. Marrieds must also lease a lot at an annual rate of $340 to $440 depending on sewer options chosen, and park rents a lot for the season and have some kind of camper on wheels," he said. "For people who have the money and the marriage but can't manage the camper, RVs can be rented from Songer for $150 per week.

park as the cleanest, quietest park in the USA and requires every tenant to post his list of important rules. For example, anyone under 25 years old is prohibited from driving a car in the park. Visitors are forbidden to drive their cars into the park regardless of their age. Kids under 12 years old must be on their lots by dark or face a punishment of four hours of garbage duty. Older, unmarried youth must return to the lot by midnight or they too are in for the long garbage duty or possibly a 30-day eviction. Songer holds his tenants captive on Sundays and holidays by forbidding any traffic to exit the park between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. unless it's an emergency. These are just a few of the rules of Greenwood Acres located outside of Jackson. Songer said if people don't agree or believe in the rules then he doesn't want them.

Disco fever on the rise

Whether or not "Saturday Night Fever" is responsible, the disco craze is continuing its metropolitan Detroit bustle. Many new places and innovative ideas have sprung up to comply with the demand, one of the most recent being the Paddles Disco inside the exhibition racquetball courts at the Lemontree apartments clubhouse. The dance floor is inside the glass-walled racquetball court and features tiered seating outside the court for 250.

The club is at the 194 service drive and New Denton Road, just beyond the Lemontree apartments complex. Pepper's, at Cass Lake and Elizabeth Lake roads, has a capacity for 900 feet (450 people) and features Monday night dance lessons and Tuesday night competition. Bands and recorded music alternate evenings throughout the week. Ted Fuller, a partner in Pepper's, is opening a new disco palace called Oscar's Disco Theater Aug. 30. It will feature name bands and big sounds at the Northwestern Highway, south of Twelve Mile location. Crackers in Walled Lake Road has a restaurant upstairs. Nifty Norman's, and is somewhat smaller than others mentioned. Dance lessons are given on Wednesday night, with disco music played Wednesday-Saturday. Thumpers Disco, which has been open 18 months, is at Crooks Road and M-59 in Avon Township. There's dancing Monday-Saturday. For sustenance, the Brass Lamp restaurant is next door.
