

Paschall-Winterbottom

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Paschall, of Palos Heights, Ill., announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce, to W. Stephen Winterbottom, son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Winterbottom of Farmington Hills.

The bride-elect graduated from Kalamazoo College and received her master's degree in deaf education from Illinois State University. She is teaching the deaf at University High School in Normal, Ill. Her fiancé graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Kalamazoo College and is employed as a programmer analyst with Arthur Anderson and Co. in Chicago.

An August wedding is planned.

Fashion benefit planned for CLF

A gala fashion show featuring costumes from the world's most famous operas and Hollywood films will take place Sunday, Aug. 13 at a benefit for the Children's, Leukemia Foundation of Michigan.

The dinner dance will begin at 7 p.m. at the Albena Hall, 2660 Gratiot, north of Ten Mile in Roseville and is being planned by Debra Daniels.

The fashions, from the 1920s to the 1950s, will be shown in an indoor garden setting and will be provided by Stephen Originals Limited.

Live jazz entertainment will be provided by Billy T's Quartet. Tickets, which include dinner, are $20 per person and $35 per couple with a cash bar. They are available at Me and My Lady in Birmingham and The Latin Quarter in Detroit. The Children's Leukemia Foundation is located at 19022 Ten Mile in Southfield.

It is a non-profit volunteer organization dedicated to the battle against leukemia and related blood diseases and research.

For further information call Debra Daniels at 381-2097.
