

BLACK IS BACK! Black is for glamour. For chic. For military. For mixing with brights. It's the basic color for 1978. Other hues on the fall palette are:

- DELUXE DARKS: Burgundy, raisin, eggplant, mallard, pine green, petrol—the rich new basics for every collection.
- MILITARY OVERTONES: Khaki, olive, British tan, Officers pink, Field Marshall grey, R.A.F. blue, Brassband brights in red, gold, royal blue.
- EARTH TONES: Vineyard reds in claret, rose, bordeaux, raspberry, cassis, grape.
- EXOTIC SPICES: Mustard, curry, paprika, cinnamon, honey.
- FOREST GREENERY: Fir, pine, moss, hunter, sage, stone.
- BRILLIANTS: Dominant in every collection for evening clothes are ruby, fushia, turquoise, sapphire, amethyst, emerald, chrome, gold—shown mixed together, accenting neutrals, reviving black.

Shapes of the future include component parts that zip together for both him and her. American women may resist for another season, but when it's big in Europe, the U.S. fashion buyers aren't far behind. Designs by Paul DeCommando of London. Strawberry Studio, New York City.
