

Adams wins Class A golf title

By MARTY BUDNER
Carl Pasbjerg knew he had a talented golf team, but the Rochester Adams coach didn't know how good other teams around the state were.

Saturday he found out that they were all second best.
Playing at the Binder Park Golf Course in Battle Creek, the Highlanders won the state golf championship by one stroke over Hills, 318-319.

It is the first time any Adams High School team has won a Michigan High School Athletic Association (MHSAA) state title.
And, spicing the team victory like tabasco sauce, junior Greg Manning of Adams won the individual championship with a sudden death playoff victory over Brad Turner of Midland

Dow. Each golfer finished with a three-over-par 75, but Manning birdied the first extra hole while the best Turner could do was par.
"I said before the state tournament that I figured three of our golfers could be a state champion, and we could possibly win the team championship because we had the talent," said Pasbjerg. "But I just didn't know what the other teams were like on the west side of the state."
"We had the talent, but there was also a bit of luck involved. We won by one stroke, and out of 319 strokes, how many opportunities are there to have a bad shot?"
