Starting November 1 Your Detroit Bank-er presents

What your checking account won't cover, your savings account will.*

(*Providing that sufficient funds exist in your Daily Interest Savings Account.)

November 1 is the day new convenience comes to you from DETROITBANK Corporation banks. That's the day Save & Check, our automatic transfer service, goes into effect.

All you need is a checking account and a Daily Interest statement savings account at any DETROITBANK Corporation bank and you will have the best overdraft protection possible.

Save & Check protects you against overdraft charges. With Save & Check, anytime you overdraw your checking account you won't have to worry about service charges.

Your DETROIT BANK-er will automatically transfer enough money, in increments of $50, from your savings account to your checking account to cover the overdraft. And all it costs for this extra convenience is a modest fifty cents for the transfers you make in any one day.

Save & Check lets your savings account balance add to your checking account balance when needed. What if you need to write a bigger check than the balance in your checking account? If you have

Save & Check, you don't have to go to the bank to transfer the money from savings. Just write the check. The money you need will be automatically transferred to checking from savings, where it has been earning daily interest.

Open your savings and checking accounts with us now. To make Save & Check work for you, you will need to sign up for the service and have a checking account and a Daily Interest statement savings account at a DETROITBANK Corporation bank.

Your savings will earn interest every day, from day of deposit to day of withdrawal. And we compound the interest continuously so the 5% annual interest rate gives you a 5.20% effective annual yield.

Of course, you need to have both accounts at the same DETROITBANK Corporation bank. And be sure to ask to be enrolled in our automatic transfer Save & Check service.

Beginning November 1, this newest banking convenience can be yours. Just get to know your DETROIT BANK-er better... at your nearest DETROITBANK Corporation bank.
