

Happy New Year

Ford dealers opened the 1979 model year with crowded showrooms and two major sales records. The dealers delivered more than 3.3 million new cars and trucks during 1978—their highest model-year total in history—and closed the year by establishing Fairmont as the industry's best-selling new nameplate with more than 420,000 first-year sales. Ford's all-new LTD and Mustang are drawing thousands of customers to dealerships during the 1979-model introduction period. Typical are crowded new-car display areas at Auto Ford (top) in Southfield, and Jerome Duncan Ford in Sterling Heights.
