

Zolkower attends St. John's College

Harry Zolkower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wachler, Farmington Hills, is a freshman at St. John's College, Annapolis, Md.
Under St. John's non-elective curriculum, he also will be taking four years of mathematics, proceeding from considerations of Euclid's first definition that a point is that which has no part to a study of four dimensional geometry of Einstein's special theory of relativity in his senior year.
His curriculum also includes four years of laboratory science, four of language and two of music.

Charles Viane is appointed vice president

Farmington Hills resident Charles Viane has been appointed second vice president and international banking officer at Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit.
He previously was a financial officer for CMI Corp. in Troy.
He also has experience as a commercial loan officer at First National Bank and Trust Company in Oklahoma and at the National Bank of Detroit.
He has a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in business administration from Michigan State University.
