Hanuka Happening

To celebrate the festival of Hanuka, the youth groups of Adat Shalom Synagogue will hold a "Hanuka Happening" as their major fundraising event of the year.

The event will be a dairy dinner-auction Sunday, Dec. 17, at 5 p.m. at the Synagogue, 2991 Middlebelt Road, Farmington Hills.

Featured at dinner will be the traditional potato latkes. Area merchants and businessmen have donated gift certificates and trips as well as merchandise for the auction to follow.

Children will be entertained at a movie and by magician, Mark Schostak.

Proceeds will benefit youth programs and camp scholarships. For more information, call 861-5100.

The program in which about 140 will participate will conclude its 90 minute program with the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. A fellowship hour will follow.
