ball game. We're the surprise team. No one believed me or the team but they believe to now.

Owens led the Rocks' scoring, playing the best game of his high school career. The 6-2 forward scored 21 points to take game hones. He registered 11 of those in the third quarter when Salem battled back from a 34-26 halftime defecit.

Rich Heweltt scored 16 points and had the assist on Owens' game-winning doop, Teammate Kevin Kelliher added 15.

Bentley coach Jim Komula had

"I can't take anything away from them (Salem). They played hard.
"But I don't think they are any better than we are. If they are rated lifth in the state by the Detroit News and nimb by the Detroit Free Press), then we should be rated fifth too.
"What hurt was their hand checking," the Bentley coach said in disgust. Kurt Thorderson led the Bentley squad with 18 points, playing tough inside and outside all night long. Older brother Eric added 17 as diff Chris Bollin. Guard Steve Booth chipped in with 10.
