

Cepnik-Barkley

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cepnik of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter Lynn Marie to Randy Barkley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Barkley of Flushing, Mich.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of North Farmington High School and University of Michigan, School of Business Administration. Her fiancé is a graduate of Flushing High School and University of Michigan, School of Business Administration.

An October wedding is planned in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

Peters-Shuster

Linda Irene Shuster and James Lee Peters were married Aug. 11 in First Baptist Church of Ypsilanti. She is the daughter of Mrs. Walter Shuster, of Farmington and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Peters of Ann Arbor.

The bride wore an ivory chiffon gown fashioned with a blouson top, and split sleeves trimmed with Chantilly lace. Her picture hat was of ivory chiffon and matching lace and her bouquet of pink and white roses was adorned with ribbon streamers.

Bonnie Shuster served as her sister's maid of honor with bridesmaids Nancy Pantaleo, Julie Blankenship, Sheryl Bowlick and Robin Dovitz.

Al Sierra served as best man with groomsmen Dave Hallman, John Lee Rob Shuster and Ron Shuster.

She is a graduate of University of Michigan employed as a speech pathologist by St. Joseph County Council for the Retarded in South Bend, Ind.

He is a graduate of Michigan State University, employed as physical education director for Hartford School District, in Hartford, Mich.

The couple received guests in Roma's of Ann Arbor before leaving on a wedding trip to Toronto, Ont. They will make their home in Dowagiac, Mich.

Mach-Karp

Tracy Lynn Karp and Stanley Bruce Mach were married in Livonia Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses July 21. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen 'Skip' Karp, of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Mach of Redford.

The bride's Victorian-styled gown was fashioned of white flowing chiffon with caplet sleeves and insets of silk Venice lace on the bodice. She carried a bouquet of white silk roses and cascading ivy.

Alene Fox served as maid of honor with bridesmaids Vickie Fallon and Lauren Hirschman, all clad in blue Quiana gowns with floral silk organza blousons, while they carried bouquets of silk morning glories with peach silk streamers.

Junior bridesmaids were Stephanie Karp and Lianna Mach, who wore peach tiered gowns and carried small white baskets of blue and peach silk flowers, adorned with streamers.

Pat Mach served as his brother's best man with groomsmen H. Timothy Karp and Bryan Bishop. Ushers were Mike Crandall and Leo Crandall.

The bride is an honor graduate of Farmington High School, employed with Alexander Hamilton Insurance Agency. The groom is a graduate of Redford Union High School, employed with Mowery Masonry Inc.

The couple received 300 guests in Wayne Community Center before leaving on a wedding trip to Florida and West Virginia, where the groom will join his brother's construction firm.

They will make their home in Spencer, W. Va.

VIOLET AND JACK WEISS

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weiss mark 50th anniversary

"Happy Hour," a regular Friday afternoon event in Oak Hill Nursing Home, took on an added festive air Aug. 17, when residents and staff joined with relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weiss to celebrate the couple's 50th wedding anniversary.

The guests of honor were married in Detroit on Aug. 18, 1929 and lived there for 30 years, with interim years in Tuscon, Ariz. He is a Mason and a retired self-employed painting contractor. She is a retired registered nurse and a past Worthy Matron of the Order of Eastern Star for Purdy Chapter in Detroit.

The couple have three children: Merle Weiss, of Livonia; Mrs. Julius Eichler of Southfield; and Mrs. Jared Meyers, of Miami, Fla., and 12 grandchildren.

Variety of art classes offered to young people

Saturdays are art days for young people in Farmington Community Center where they can explore a variety of media and experiment with materials as they create individualized projects.

Beginning Sept. 22, students meet for eight sessions led by artist Karen Carter. The fee for all classes is $26, which includes all necessary materials. Miss Carter holds a masters of art degree from University of Michigan. She is a member of Michigan Water Color Society, Palette and Brush Club, Detroit Society of Women Painters & Sculptors, and the Birmingham-Bloomfield Art Association.

Her work has been exhibited in many Michigan galleries.

A class called "Art Exploration" for the 5 to 7-year-old set meets from 9:30-10:45 a.m. for drawing, painting, sculpting and fashioning puppets.

"Art Exploration" for the 8 to 11-year olds meets from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Students will sharpen their drawing, painting and sculpting skills.

The center is at 24705 Farmington Rd. Reservations and inquiries will be taken by calling the center, 477-8404.

New courses at EMU

Basic scuba diving, negotiating a labor union collective bargaining agreement, recent American experimental fiction, basic genetics, and the biology of cancer are just a few of the new courses which will be offered at Eastern Michigan University during the fall semester which begins Sept. 5.

Registration in-person continues until Sept. 4 and late registration will be held from Sept. 5 through 13 at the Registration Office in Briggs Hall. The office is open from 8-11:30 a.m. and from 1-4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

A special evening registration will be available until 8 p.m. on Aug. 29, 30, and Sept. 4, and until 6:30 p.m. on Sept. 5, 6, 10, and 11.

The Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts will offer a new three-semester-hour course titled "Communications in Negotiations," which stresses the practical communication skills needed for negotiating a labor union collective bargaining agreement and effective grievance handling. The course will meet Monday from 7-9:40 p.m.

Two new courses, each two semester hours of credit, will be offered by the Biology Department. "Heredity and you," which will meet Monday and Wednesday from 3-4:30 p.m. will introduce the non-specializing student to genetics including immune systems, blood groups, sex-linkage and population genetics.

A lecture course, titled "The Biology of Cancer," will focus on the types, characteristics, putative causes and current treatments of cancer. It will meet Monday and Wednesday from 5:15-6:05 p.m. It will meet Monday and Wednesday from 5:15-6:05 p.m.

A real estate course, "Property Development and Management," will discuss market analysis and planning for land developments and will meet Wednesday from 7-9:30 p.m.

OTHER NEW EMU undergraduate courses to be offered during the fall semester include:

"Social Insurance and Economic Security," offered for three semester hours of credit, will examine the problem of economic insecurity and social response to it and analyzes the U.S. social security system and public assistance programs.

"Business French II" will offer a study conducted in French of business practices, business law, the French economy and the geographic economy of France.

"Basic Scuba Diving," which will meet Friday from 6-10 p.m. for two hours of credit, is designed to develop the necessary skills for safe participation in underwater scuba diving activities.

"Basic Architectural Drawing," introduces architectural drawing techniques with emphasis on lettering, line quality, scale and organization.

"Teaching Reading and the Language Arts," a six credit hour course, will concentrate on the developmental aspects of reading and language arts programs for pre-school and elementary school students.

"Literature Types," will focus on recent American experimental fiction.

"Major Authors," a three credit hour course, will examine the work of English novelist Jane Austen.

"Physical Geography" is a beginning course for geology majors and minors.

"History and Geography of Spanish America" will present an interdisciplinary approach to the history, geography, political, cultural and socio-economic forces from the conquest the present of Spanish America.

For a complete list of EMU undergraduate or graduate courses and further information on registration procedures, call the EMU Registration Office at (313) 487-2300.

echo park school

VISITORS WELCOME
Kindergarten, Pre-School
and Mother Toddler Program
646-5590
4275 Echo Park Road
Bloomfield Hills

WHAT'S IN STORE FOR FALL?

- CORDUROYS
- PLAIN & PRINTED
- RIBBED & UNICUT
- VELVETS
- CHALLIS
- WOOLS
- FLANNELS
- PLAIDS
- TWEEDS

STEWART FABRICS
275 E. MAPLE 255 N. CENTER
BIRMINGHAM BAGINAW
Sewing Classes Available

AUCTION

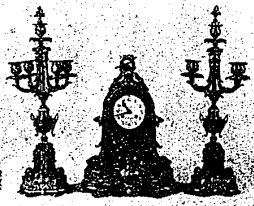

C.B. CHARLES' GALLERIES, INC.

ESTATE SPECIALISTS, AUCTIONEERS, APPRAISERS

10th ANNUAL LABOR DAY AUCTION
September 3rd and 4th
at our galleries each evening at 7:30 p.m.

FEATURING: Fine Antiques, Collectibles, Oriental Rugs,
Clocks, Jewelry and Decorative Accessories.

SPECIAL FEATURE:
Jewelry from the
Greg Dodge Moran
Bankruptcy Sale

Three Piece French Second Empire Marble and Gilt Bronze Clock Garniture Set, Clock, 17-1/2" high.

Large Antique Japanese Bronze Pierced Cover Koro on Attached Base, 24 1/2" high

Pair Chinese Peking Cloisonne and Semi-Precious Stone Inlaid Bird Incense Burners. 11 1/2" wide, 8 1/2" high.

EXHIBITION: One hour prior to each session. Catalogues available $2.00.
Terms: Cash, Check, American Express, VISA and Master Charge.
For information: (313) 338-9203

C.B. CHARLES' GALLERIES, INC.

825 Woodward Avenue, Pontiac, Michigan 48053
(One mile north of Square Lake Road)

End of Summer Sale

Now
Through Labor Day Week

Final Markdowns
20% to 75%
off original prices*

a selection of dresses
and sport separates

1/3 to 1/2 off original prices*
a selection of swimsuits

*There may have been some intermediate price reductions on some items prior to this sale. Not everything in every size and color. Total units 900.

all sales final
no C.O.D.'s

The shops of Walton-Pierce
Grosse Pointe • Somerset Mall