New members called to Musicale's tea

The Farmington Musicale encourages all prospective members to attend its membership tea, at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 12, in its new meeting place, Detroit Baptist Manor, 30245 13 Mile Road. Membership is open to those interested in music and art, both performers and patrons. The afternoon tea is planned to give newcomers a look at what the group is all about and to acquaint the guests with current members. The Farmington Musicale is an affiliate of Michigan and National Federation of Music Clubs. The afternoon tea will begin with a musical program given by soprano Sharon Cardecia, who will perform art songs accompanied by pianist Mary Behanan. Pianist Eleanor Peets is also on the program, performing works from the romantic and contemporary periods. THE GROUP meets regularly on the first Wednesday of each month, and holds periodic instrumental and vocal workshops for its members. The Musicale, Chorus is directed by Sue McCallum. Members share in promoting National Music Week, and work to give scholarships every year to area youth who are interested in furthering musical studies. A sampling of the programs set for the coming year at regular monthly meetings includes one on sacred music, one by the Latvian Vocal Ensemble and one by the Scandinavian Folk Dancers. Meanwhile, members will be working toward a fund-raising concert set for Friday, Nov. 2, with proceeds earmarked for a new piano. The highlight for April is "Opera Spoofs — A Musical Advent of Jack and Jill." Cast members will all be Musicale members, with the spoof on opera directed by Sharon Cardecia. Vivian Manwarig, the club's new membership chairman, will take inquiries at 477-4139.

St. Alexander festival

(Continued from page 1B) and sharing situations." pastor of St. Alexander. "A tremendous spirit, a love for the place," he said. "In some parishes, a festival is a way of bringing people together. But it's not needed to bring people together here. It's a by-product of their on-going togetherness." "Some people come out to work on the festival because they sense the need, they sense the attitude. Then they stay out, working in other areas of community service." "Worship then becomes more meaningful for them because they see their religion at work and because they share with others the same demanding
