Area's best swim times

The Observer & Eccentric sports sections would like to extend their thanks to Southfield-Lathrup's Pete Biglin for keeping track of the girls' swim listings this fall. Biglin will also be in charge of compiling this year's boys' listings, as well.

Boys' swim coaches from the Birmingham-Bloomfield, Southfield, Troy, Rochester, Farmington and West Bloomfield communities are asked to report their best boys' swim times to Biglin. The Chargers' coach can be reached at the Lathrup pool weekdays after 3 p.m. at 354-7655 or at home 828-9494. The Observer & Eccentric sports sections hope to publish the best swim times weekly with the help of our area coaches.

No lack of competition for netters

By DAVID W. STEWART

A few years ago tennis players had a difficult time finding competition, but that has all changed.

The indoor season is upon us and there are club tournaments for all ability levels. Almost all the clubs have leagues and tournaments which are beginning now and continuing throughout the season.

With the high number of competitive events in this area no players should ever be heard to say: "I'd like to join an indoor club, but I don't have anyone to play with." To most players all you have to do is enter a tournament or join a league.

Centaur Farms Racquet Club in West Bloomfield held its fall doubles champions with 68 players competing in three tournaments that started on Friday evening and ended Sunday afternoon.

The men's finals in the "A" Division produced the most exciting tennis of the weekend when Neal Marcus (Farmington Hills) and John Simon (Franklin) defeated Mircea Morariu (Birmingham) and Tom Jefferson (Livonia) 6-4, 6-3.

Morariu, who is a member of the Centaur Club, formerly played on the Romanian David Cup Team.

The Women's "A" doubles crown was captured by the West Bloomfield team of Anita Goldman and Laurie Kaufman. They downed the Orchard Lake team of Maxi Neufebauer and Julie McKnight, 6-4, 6-2, in the finals.

In the finals of the Men's "B" doubles, the Farmington duo of Ed Andries and John Heller defeated Wes Henrikson and Gary Sixt (both from Northville) 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.
