10 Seek Title Pick Jr. Miss Saturday

FARMINGTON Ten local high school girls will compete in the finals of the Farmington Junior Miss Pageant, sponsored by the Farmington Jaycees, starting at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 22 in the Farmington Junior High School.

Selection of the 10 finalists from the 17 entries was made Sunday on the basis of poise, personality, appearance, scholastic achievement and mental alertness.

SIX OF the finalists are from North Farmington High and four are from Farmington High. North Farmington contestants are: Marcia Albrecht, Diane Ankele, Jill Daumler, Melody Mercer, Rae Miller and Peri Ozker.

Contestants from Farmington High are Christine Cook, Michelle Johnson, Jan Kulbaba and Robin Spjeldest.

Judges Sunday were: Mrs. Shirley Richardson, chairman of the City of Farmington Beautification Committee; C.W. Hogberg, manager of the Dale Carnegie Institute; and Ron Wyszynski, legislative consultant for Garden City Public Schools.

The following local merchants will donate gift certificates to each of the winners of the junior miss categories: Demery's Fashion Fashions, Goldman Drugs, Harvi's Suburban Shop and Juliet Dress Shop.

Plan Judo Match

FARMINGTON Sponsors expect 100-200 contestants for a judo tournament to be held Nov. 29 in the American Legion Groves-Walker Post 346 at 21775 Grand River, Farmington.

The Annual Fall Tournament, sponsored by the Budokan Judo Club of Dearborn and the American Legion Post, will begin at noon.

Competition will be held in both senior and junior classes. Only Amateur Athletic Union members are eligible. The entry fee is $2.

Over 30 trophies will be awarded to first and second finishers in each division. Men will compete in five weight divisions. Boys divisions are based on both age and weight.

Matches will be three minutes long with no overtime. Only contestants 13 or older will be allowed to use choking techniques.

This is the first year for the tournament, which is sanctioned by the United States Judo Association. Most of the contestants will be younger than 17.

Sponsors will request a donation at the door.
