Argentine Youth Leader Coming

FARMINGTON
"Students in Argentina are making an impact in their country," says Rev. Robert Greenman, "and it's not with noise and fire bombs."
Greenman will tell of his work with students in Argentina at the First Baptist Church of Farmington as guest speaker for the church's annual Thanksgiving Banquet starting at 6:30 p.m., Nov. 21.
Greenman has been involved in the teaching and administration of the Evangelical Baptist Seminary of Northern Argentina.

Besides their classroom work, the Argentine students have responsibilities to local churches on weekends. Greenman supervised the practical work of the students and also spent time outside the classroom counseling with them.

Those planning to attend the banquet should reserve tables by calling 474-0350.
