Led by all-conference players Helen Shereda and Kathy Hewelt, the 1979 edition of the Oakland University soft-ball team will open its season (weather permitting) this afternoon (Thursday) at 3 p.m. against the University of De-troit behind the Sports and Recreation Building. Building.

Four players will be back from the Building.

Four players will be back from the 1978 squad which finished 14-3 overall, and fourth in state competition. Oakhand's 6-2 Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) mark was good enough for second place.
Besides Shereda and Hewelt — the two leading players on Oakland's baskeball team this past winter — other returning palyers include catcher Faren Depper and third baseman Jeanette Fisher from Garden City.
Hewelt, who plays third bases, was named the team's most valuable player last year. Shered is a pitcher as the player of the playe
