AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS announces plans for its first group travel program to Egypt and Israel since peace has been made in the Middle East.

Two separate tours are planned with a total of 17 departure dates offered. Specifics are available by contacting the group's headquarters, Suite 102, 21751 Nine Mile Rd., Southfield, 48075. The phone number is 357-2766.

BETHANY NORTHWEST, a support group for separated and divorced Christians, meets at 8 p.m. Friday, April 6, in Mercy Center, 28600 11 Mile Rd.

The evening agenda calls for a program, short business meeting and a social hour.

A donation of $2 will be asked at the door.

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION (DAR), John Sackett Chapter, meets at noon, Saturday, April 7, in the home of Dr. Helen Dilchazy, 37990 Tralee Trail, Northville.

Co-hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. Walter Macker and Mrs. James Rogers, both of Farmington Hills. Sue Cooper of Novi and Mrs. Harvey Dettler of Livonia.

The program, called "The Environmental Equation," will be led by a representative of Detroit Edison Company.

The election of a chaplain and director will take place at that time. And Mariada Koppelman, chairman of the group's Indians Affairs Committee, will continue to collect soup can labels to be sent to St. Mary School in South Dakota.

WOMEN'S AGLOW FELLOWSHIP, Northwest-Farmington Chapter, meets at 7 p.m. Monday, April 9, in Mercy Conference Center, on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt Road.

Speaker for the dinner meeting is the Rev. Richard Brookes, who hosts the TV program "Faith for Miracles" on Channel 62.

Reservations are $6.50 and will be taken by calling Donna Dace, 553-0057. The group is interdenominational and welcomes guests.

SENIOR CITIZEN DROP IN CENTER is open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. every Monday and Wednesday in Mason Temple, Farmington and Grand River roads, for pinocchio and bridge games.

Guests are invited to bring a sack lunch. Beverages are furnished.

MUTUAL SUPPORT, a group for arthritis sufferers and their families, meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday, April 9, in St. David Episcopal Church, on 12 Mile Road, between Southfield and Greenfield, in Southfield.

An educational slide presentation on a quackery put to arthritis sufferers, a $950 million annual business, will be shown.

A statement from Arthritis Foundation, Michigan Chapter, reads "Arthritis sufferers are bilked out of more money by quacks and quackery than any other group suffering from a disease problem."

The program comes as a community service, without charge to participants, sponsored by the chapter, which is an agency of United Way of Michigan.

NORTH FARMINGTON GARDEN CLUB meets at noon, Tuesday, April 10, in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile Road.

Greta Tipping leads the program, giving practical hints on spring gardening.

FARMINGTON ARTISTS CLUB meets at 7 p.m. Wednesday, April 11, in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile Road, to hear speaker Douglas Semivan.

He has been an instructor of drawing at Wayne State University since 1973, and has taught lithography both at Wayne and Midland Center for the Arts.

He is an author, lecturer, and holder of many awards for his art work.

From 1974-78 he served as director of exhibitions for Detroit Artists Market.

The meeting is open to guests. A small fee will be asked of non-members at the door.

FARMINGTON AMATEUR RADIO CLUB meets at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 11, in Room 101-G, Farmington High School, 32000 Shilawasse Road.

All meetings of the club are open to all persons interested in amateur radio.

HELPING HANDS CITIZENS BAND CLUB OF FARMINGTON HILLS meets at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, April 11, in Wheeler Fire Station, 21420 Wheeler St., corner of Grand River and Middlebelt roads.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Farmington Observer, 23352 Farmington Road, Farmington, 48024, and must arrive on the Monday prior to Thursday publication.

Our Reputation is on The Line every time we sign a Tax Return

We're a local organization. Even though we served more than 3000 clients last year we haven't forgotten that every client is an individual and that each individual deserves the best service we can provide.

When we sign a tax return that we've prepared, we're proud of having done the best possible job for you. When you see our signature on your tax return you can be sure that:

1. The counselor who prepared your return was complete and thoroughly experienced in tax matters.
2. You have received the maximum legal deductions and the minimum legal tax.
3. Your tax return has received all the time and attention that was necessary to do a proper job.
4. Your tax return has been double-checked for both accuracy and tax saving possibilities.
5. Your return has been handled in a confidential manner.
