There's a bright new face and life for that precious fur you've worn and loved, but is no longer as up-to-the-minute as you'd like. Our master furrier, Mr. Frederick, will be here Monday, May 7, 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the Fur Salon to meet with you, and to examine your fur pieces to determine what miracles he can perform. He can create a new style, add a border, lengthen or reline your garment. For an appointment, dial 644-6900.

Jacobson's
BIRMINGHAM

A collection of centuries old, dynasties past and today-new jewelry and rarities from the People's Republic of China has found its way to Jacobson's.
Ms. Leslie Schweitzer, one of the Three Noble People, will be here to present this unique group Thursday, May 3 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. We invite you to view this cache of individually selected antique silver nail guards from the Ch'ing Dynasty, kingfisher chignon pins, silver and jade necklaces, cloisonne enamels, lacquered straw boxes, embroidered silks and many other pieces that capture the elegance and mystery of a culture 4000 years old and half a world away. Antique pieces bear certificates of authenticity.
