Local college students honored across state

Ceremony and surprise marked the traditional May Morning Sing at Michigan State University May 1 as 94 students were tapped for Tower Guard and Mortar Board — honorary organizations that laud high academic achievement and leadership.

Mary Beth Brady and Randall Stern of Farmington Hills were among those honored. Miss Brady, who plans to be a veterinarian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brady. She is a graduate of Mercy High School.

Stern, a 1978 graduate of Farmington High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stern.

SEVEN AREA students were among students who received special recognition for excellent academic achievement at the annual honors reception at Mercy College of Detroit last week. The honorees from Farmington are Lisa Peria and Cynthia Kwasniewicz.

Those from Farmington Hills include: Sr. Karen Marie Michaels, Lynne Moffitt, Michael Patton, Martin Sorek and John Truitt.

Scout camperships available

Camperships, financial aid given to help a young girl spend some time in camp this summer, are now available from the Southern Oakland Girl Scout Council.

"In these times of financial aid given for the purpose of further education, Girl Scout Camperships should not be overlooked as a source of aid for girls to have an outdoor experience," said Barbara Jones, of Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit.

Money that makes the camperships available comes from the profits of the Girl Scout Cookie Sale.

Applications to apply for camperships to assist girls in this area are available by writing Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, P.O. Box 156-LV, Lathrup Village 48076. Telephone inquiries will be taken by calling the council at 559-7510.
