Troop 179 seeks new scoutmaster

An extremely active group of Boy Scouts is looking for a new scoutmaster.

Kenneth Milliken, who has headed Troop 179 for many years, is retiring as leader for the scouts who meet in Church of Christ, 36500 11 Mile Rd., about a quarter of a mile west of Drake Road.

Troop members have become skilled in camping lore under his direction. And the Troop has more than $1,000 in the treasury, and a hard working committee. The boys range from 11-18 years of age.

Milliken will assist the new scoutmaster by acquainting him with the troop and its activities.

The troop is looking for one who has had leadership experience in scouting, or who wants to take on that type of leadership. Interested persons are asked to call troop committee chairman, Bill Short, 474-9421.

Former Farmington Mayor Dr. John Richardson will continue to serve the troop as assistant scout master.

Widowed meet

Widowed Persons will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 5, in Mercy Center, 28600 11 Mile Rd., to hear June Shada talk about stress.

Ms. Shada believes that a certain amount of stress makes the individual do what needs to be done, but beyond the certain amount, she will tell how to manage stress before it manages you. Meetings sponsored by the club are open to all widows and widowers in the area for a $2 donation, asked at the door.

A special meeting for the young widowed, those in their 20s and 30s, will be sponsored by the group on Monday, June 18. Persons interested in this event are asked to call Jean Peterl, 476-8010.

'Suzuki Showcase' June 5

The South Oakland County Suzuki Association presents its spring recital, "Suzuki Showcase," at 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 5, in the Aaron de Roy Theater, Jewish Community Center in West Bloomfield.

Violinists and pianists from 3-10 years of age will perform musical works by Bach, Gossec, Vercelli, Weber and Suzuki.

The Suzuki violin method of instruction enables tots to master the joy of playing as well as listening to music.

Jan Ryan, the association's director, said, "The public is invited to see and hear these young musicians and their amazing expertise."

There is no charge for the recital.

The summer session of classes will begin June 11. Inquiries will be taken by calling the Jewish Community Center, 661-1000, Group Services Office.
