PTA council awards 6 scholarships to graduates

Six high school seniors will be awarded scholarships by the Farmington Area PTA Council at the board of education meeting tomorrow night. The recipients are Jennifer Dillon, Heather MacDonald, Ann Wilson, Kimberly Hames, Marie Kurzeja and Michael Robson. Each will receive a $450 scholarship made possible through support of Farmington area elementary school PTAs donation to the scholarship fund and by two fund-raising events. Miss Dillon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dillon and a student at Farmington High. She was president of the National Honor Society and a Phi Beta Kappa. She hopes to study political science and business at Michigan State University.

Miss MacDonald is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacDonald and a student at Farmington High. She plans to attend the University of Michigan and major in engineering. She has been a member of the Twelve Tones, the National Honor Society and a Red Cross volunteer.

Ann Wilson, a student at North Farmington, plans to study chemistry and health sciences at Kalamazoo College. She was president of the National Honor Society, secretary of the Student Council, Senior Board representative, and a recipient of the DAR Citizenship Award. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson. Kimberly Hames, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hames and a student at North Farmington, plans to study commercial art at the University of Michigan. She was vice president of the French Club, member of the Exchange Club, German Club, National Honor Society and Phi Beta Kappa.

Miss Kurzeja's activities included captain of the girls' varsity volleyball team, a teacher's aide and she was first runner-up in the Detroit tri-county Seal's International Women's Executive for Business Students. A student at Harrison High, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kurzeja. She expects to attend Ferris State College to study health service management.

Michael Robson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Robson and also a student at Harrison High. He plans to study pre-med at Michigan State University.
