

BANNER PROCESSION—Members of the youth groups of the 10 churches that participated in the ecumenical Thanksgiving Eve service in Farmington made special banners that were carried in procession down the aisle of St. Alexander Catholic Church. The banner from

Salem United Church of Christ, corried by Carolyn Bridges, left, and Jan Lasich, bore the Biblical passage, "For every thing there is a season, and a time to revery matter under heaven: a time to love and a time to hate,

THE REV. EDWARD Pilar-owski, pistor of St. Damian, said necessary tuffon boosts had made it more and more difficult for families to keep their children in the school.

"We've had a couple of school board meetings but made no de-cisions," he said.

Fr. Pilarowski said enroli-ment at 784 is definitely down from the school's capacity of 900.

"The first I heard that we had a problem was when I read it in the papers last week," he ad-ded.

ALL THE PARISHES listed will be following the procedure described by Fr. Kress.

"We have to submit an analysis of our financial situation by Dec. 15 to the Archdicese," he said. That will include the coming year's budget.

Later will come parish coun-cil meetings and sessions with parents of the students current-ly enrolled or to be enrolled la-ter.
