abeth, the huge luxury liner. He held that job for five years, making 98 Atlantic crossings. And he didn't have to give athletic. With a crew of 1,400, the Queen Elizabeth had six soccer teams and a track squad. The teams would play their matches in New York when the ship was docked.

Magee came to America 15 years ago. He landed his job at Ford Motor Company thanks to the experience he gained making fighter planes.

Angels, who range in age from 18 to 45, have varied backgrounds. Three or four are physical therapists at St. Mary's Hospital, recruited by Mrs. McIntosh.

"I know that a lot of these ladies are housewives and I think this (soccer) is a nice form of relaxation for them," Magee said.

THE WEST BLOOMFIELD course, estimated at 80 percent downhills, was specially groomed so that four racers could compete in a heat. The race had a steep downhill start and finished on a flat.

The winner in the 7 and 8 age division was Billy Gibbons of Metamora. Finishing in second place was Dan Armitage of West Bloomfield with Chuck Litvin, also of West Bloomfield, placing third.

For the 9 and 10-year-olds, Edward Bauer of Birmingham topped the field. David Krollick of Birmingham Hills raced to a second place finish with West Bloomfield's Randy Spivy taking third.

The 11 and 12 competition was won by Jay Richardson of Davisburg. Doug Reed of West Bloomfield was second and Brian Duerdan of Lake Orion finished third.
