THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

LINGOLN SAID

"The prudent, penniless beginner in the world labors for wages a while, saves a surplus with which to buy tools or land for himself, then labors another while and at length hires another beginner to help him."

The cycle of success as Lincoln saw it is much the same today.

Work and save. With the accumulated surplus acquire productive property. Again work and save. With the added capital you can put others at work for you.

We can help you save.

Mrs. M. B. Pierce went to Pontiac Friday evening as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. McCracken, to witness the performance of the "Comedy of Errors" given by the members of the Senior class of the Pontiac High school, under the direction of Miss Blanche Avery, teacher of English and French. The production was a great credit both to the youthful amateurs and their director. Harold McCracken in the difficult role of Promic of Epheus played the part in a manner highly creditable to himself and delightful to his friends.
