

No. 151 F.A.M. Regular meetings on Saturday nights on or before the full of the moon.

The Farmington Enterprise Co. W. C. Martindale—President $1.50 per year, in advance.

Published Friday of each week and entered at the Post Office at Farmington, Oakland County, Mich., as second class mail matter.

GOOD ROADS—GOOD WILL—Prosperity and Peace.

The Farmington Enterprise stands forth as a determined champion of good roads. Every consideration that makes us a progressive people demands a constant improvement of our highway facilities.

Produce that could be marketed was needing care in granary, cellar and crib. Why? The roadway would not so easily carry a loaded truck.

How could we get to store, shop or factory or warehouse, because of the one-deep mud in the street? How could we get to our homes "reach him" a minute, or to school, or to the office?

We envision a system of development of the county, passing through Oakland county, to the south.

A prosperous country village will reflect its advantages in an adjacent town. This unit might seem to be a part of that which is needed in the world is to prosper.

The man you don't know, said to the man you know, "I'm coming to see you." "I'm coming to see you."

There is less sectional feeling everywhere we are all American. "I'm coming to see you."

The Navy arises for our second remark: experience demonstrated that a world-war winning army can be created in ninety days.

Don't Fail to Read It!

Si Spooner Says:

Then Clarence and the men are in their work, if don't believe it go down and watch them in some road work.

Now that electrical equipment is being used in road work, it is in repair.

Spring plowing and sowing taking the time and energy of the farmers.

Ladies had a good time at their party on Saturday night for the next few weeks.

Enough to safeguard our present merchant marine—there shall be none on the high seas who shall be powerful enough to say to a ship that fronts the block "Here is a stop; thou shalt pass no further."

The high seas must be the safest and swiftest of all ports on earth. Rapid and easy means of communication by sea—and over the water—will be our best and most important good roads program.

Every material interest, every political conviction, every religious belief, every social and commercial progress, and every allied interest in this supreme business of world communication.

Try a Liner. It will pay.

The old settler is fast selling his land for subdivision purposes and his place is being taken by people from dynamic Detroit.
