Single and Wedded "Badges"

The married and unmarried women in Columbia are distinguished by the way in which they wear flowers in their hair, the married wearing them on the right side and the unmarried on the left.

Cement and Concrete.

There is something of a confusion in the public mind about the terms cement and concrete. Cement is the dry, powdered stone, but when it is mixed with an aggregate of water, sand or gravel, it becomes concrete.

Where They Tax Yidians.

In Turkey, due to the short-sighted policy of the government, it is not the custom to paint the exterior of the average house, for the tax is directly determined by the appearance of the building, a neatly painted house being taxed twice as much as a shabby dwelling, irrespective of the interior of either.
