Double Wedding Has Yule Theme

A Livonia teacher and her sister were married Friday, Dec. 26, in a double wedding in the St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church in Pigeon, Mich.

Wed in the Yuletide rites were Maureen Fox of Livonia and Gerald Evans of Bloomfield Hills and Christine Fox of Caseville and Dale L. Schulz of Pigeon.

The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Fox of Livonia and Caseville, Mich., and Mrs. Robert Evans of Bloomfield Hills and Mr. and Mrs. William Schulz of Pigeon are parents of the bridegrooms.

THE REV. WILLIAM GLENN CROWKITE, performed the double ceremony in a sanctuary decorated with evergreens and red and white poinsettias. The brides were given in marriage by their father.

Maureen wore a princess style gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with peau d'ange lace at the scalloped neckline and edging the floor-length skirt that swept into a cathedral train.

A matching lace and crystal bandeau held her illusion veil and she carried pink and white sweetheart roses.

Christine's A-line gown was styled with empire waist, Edwardian neckline and full sleeves with imported pearl bead peau d'ange lace. A petal spray secured her veil and her flowers were red roses.

These Baby Photos Help Many Causes

Those pictures of the new baby have a two-fold purpose in Farmington's Botsford Hospital.

Not only do they provide the proud parents and grandparents with an early photo of the new child, but proceeds from the purchase price have been used for a number of causes.

This is all due to the work of the doctors' wives who are members of the Zieger-Botsford Osteopathic Auxiliary at the hospital.

After the nurses take the baby's picture, the prints are developed and auxiliary members sell them to the mothers. The auxiliary receives a percentage of the profits and the funds have been used to make donations to the Michigan Osteopathic College Fund, the scholarship fund and to the hospital.

Members of the group celebrated both Christmas and Chanukkah on Dec. 2 at a party in the home of Mrs. Richard Knight of Farmington.

Mrs. David P. Lucid of Livonia is president of the auxiliary.

George Lindbloom Wed In Holiday Ceremony

Ivory and ruby red were the colors for the Christmas wedding of Grace Camella Tocco and George Alan Lindbloom Jr. in St. Ambrose Catholic Church, Grosse Pointe Park, on Friday, Dec. 26.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Paul Tocco of Grosse Pointe Park, and Mr. and Mrs. George Lindbloom Sr. of Orchard Lake Rd., Farmington are the bridegroom's parents.

For the vows heard by the Rev. Robert Rakussek, the bride chose an ivory peau de soie gown with a bodice of alencon lace beaded in seed pearls. Her headpiece was a matching crown of beaded lace, and she carried white orchids, white roses and stephanotis in a colonial arrangement.

HER ATTENDANTS wore ivory satin gowns with ruby velvet at the neckline and empire waist. Their headpieces were ruby velvet Dior bows and they carried ivory gladioli and red roses with gold Christmas trim.

Patricia Tocco was maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Mary Janet Tocco, another sister, Mary Jo Lindbloom, sister of the bridegroom, Maria Bologna and Patricia Leto, cousins of the bride and Angela Fiori.

JAMES ROBSON III was best man and the ushers were Les Majewski, Reynolds Sharpe, Salvatore Tocco and Peter Paul Tocco Jr., brothers of the bride, and Peter Bologna, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Tocco's gown and matching cape were mint green with gold and silver threads in the material. Mrs. Lindbloom wore a coat and dress ensemble of dove gray brocade.

Following the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains. They will live in Royal Oak. The new Mrs. Lindbloom will continue teaching in Roseville and her husband will resume medical technological studies at Oakland University.

ALUMNAE YULE -- Members of Delta Alumnae Association of Western Wayne County worked on several philanthropic projects in preparation for the Christmas season. They have collected Betty Crocker coupons toward a kidney machine, sent large supplies of Koolaid to Vietnam servicemen, gathered worn clothing for local needy families and to send to Alaska, packed Christmas baskets and turned out trays for the Riverbank Convalescent Home in Livonia. Shown here putting together a Santa Claus candy jar are Mary Jo Werkman, left, Leslie Frederick and Ann Mossey.

Barnhills Celebrate 25 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnhill of 11310 Gold Archer Road, Plymouth, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Dec. 24.

The couple was honored at an open house for friends and neighbors hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Housman of 11369 Gold Arbor, Plymouth.

The Barnhills were married in Middlesboro, Ky. on Dec. 24, 1944, and have lived in Plymouth for the past 20 years.

During the open house, Walter Anderson of Gold Arbor, Plymouth, played the organ to provide music. Robert Adams took pictures to help capture the event.

Christmas is a time for much merriment, but sometimes festivities result in a mishap—a spill resulting in a stain for Mom to cope with.

Most stains can be removed easily if the cause of the stain is known. Here are ways to remove some of the most common holiday stains, as suggested in The Maytag Encyclopedia of Home Laundry.

Candle wax — Scrape as much wax as possible off the fabric, using a dull knife. To remove remaining wax, place the fabric between two blotters and iron it with a warm iron. Any stain that remains can be removed with trichloroethylene (Fireproof Engine). Rinse and launder.

Coffee and tea — Stretch the garment over a basin and pour boiling water, if safe for the fabric, through the spot. Launder, using a black recommended for type of fabric. If boiling water cannot be used, soak the fabric in warm water to which the proper type of bleach has been added. Launder. Grease spots from cream can be removed with trichloroethylene.

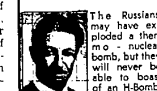

Alcoholic beverages — Sponge with cold water, then glycerine and water. Rinse with vinegar water, followed by a clear rinse. Launder as you normally would.

Fruit — Where boiling water can be used, stretch cloth over a bowl and pour boiling water through it. If the stain remains, sponge with lemon juice solution or hydrogen peroxide. Where boiling water cannot be used, sponge well in cool water. Work glycerine into stain. Let it stand several hours, then add a few drops of white vinegar and rinse thoroughly. Launder.

Incidentally, the 222-page paperback encyclopedia makes a good gift for Mom. In it she'll find information on how to properly launder all of today's fabrics, how to plan an efficient laundry center, buying laundry appliances and appliance service. Copies are available at 50 cents apiece from Consumer Information Center, Dept. C, The Maytag Company, Newton, Iowa 50208.
