Michigan Happenings

An important state precedent has been made by the Michigan Industrial accident board in the case of Mrs. Albert Smith, Kalamazoo, who has been awarded $4,200 compensation, the result of the death of her husband the result of the death of her husband September 30, on the crossing at the Rex Paper mill. Smith was driving to work at the mill. Rain prevented him seeing the approach of the train. The insurance company contested the widow's claim, but the board held that the compensation act covars om-ployes on their way to work as well as those actually engaged at their regular employment.

After 45 years as president of the local W. C. T. U., Mrs. Mary B. Dickle, wife of President Emeritus Samuel Dickle, of Albion college, has resigned to the local W. C. Dickle, of Albion college, has resigned to the Property of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Dickle became leader of the "Red Ribbon" society, which was the forerunner of the W. C. T. U. When Dr. Dickle in 1877, came to Albian college, his wife was chosen head of the local dry organization. Mrs. Harvey G. Pearce has been named to succeed Mrs. Dickle.

A request from the state welfare commission of American Legion that $5,000 be appropriated for assisting wives and children of disabled war reterans and $24,000 to replace money-aiready spent by the legion in aiding veterans has been received at Lansing by the state administrative board. The commission asked that the appropriations be made from the state war repearedness fund. The matter was referred to a committee.

Twenty minutes after the Jurors rottred at 4:30 o'clock April 19, they brought in a verdict finding John Duy at Dodge, Detroit millionaire, and Rex Earl, of Kalamazoo, gullty of possessing, transporting and furnishing intoxicating liquors. Attorney Harry Howard, of counsel for the defense, asked a stay of sentence to file a moit in the file of the file

Fire, caused by a painter's blow-torch, destroyed the $50,000 home of George B, Yerken, former prosecuting attorney for Wayne county, near Northville. Village water mains do not extend to the residence and the fire department was unable to flight the fiames. A water supply system on the farm failed. Furniture was salvaged. Insurance partially covers the loss.

After following to an end another clue, which, at first, apparently accounted for the whereabouts of Jerome Dickinson, 15-year-old acting rector of the Church of the Ascension, of Ontonagon, who disappeared April 4, W. M. Dickinson, of Detroit, his father, announced he had little hope of Inding his son alive. He believes the young clergyman drowned in Lake Sunerfor.

All state institutions and departments will be informed by order of the state administrative board that operdratts on appropriations for this year will be deducted from appropriations for next year. This means that institutions or departments overdrawing their appropriation will be spending their own money, and have that much less to spend next year.
