

A Hard Worker

You may be a hard worker. Possibly you are the most industrious person in the community. If so, we congratulate you.

But there is one thing that is a harder worker than you are, and that is MONEY. While working for money, always something from your wages. Money at interest, works day and night, holidays and Sundays. You can't equal that for industry. No other servant you might employ these days would do half so well. Your money will be secure at our bank.
