If your grocer knows that you insist upon being served with quality food, he will suggest GILDEMEISTER'S PEERLESS FLOUR

This is the moulting period for poultry. You need a feed that will produce both eggs and feathers. Scratch Feed alone will do it. Kookoo Egg Mash will. You will not realize a profit from your poultry unless you get your hens over the moulting period at once. Order a trial bag of Kookoo Egg Mash and begin to sell eggs in October, November and December which are the high price months.

If in reading over the local column this week you should come across the word daddy, or baby girl, do not think the reporter has gone "daffy." Our linotype operator, Mr. Perkins, is so pleased over the arrival of a baby daughter that came Monday, September 18, to live with them, it is hard to get his mind settled anywhere else. However, we advise him to be back to normal by next week. The little lady answers to the name of Maxine Ruth.

Much Demanded of Critic.
Criticism is neither the scales that weigh nor the icing that sweetens, but the yeast that, for readers leaves the lump. A good reviewer must have cool brains and a warm heart. He must have enthusiasms and guard them, and his criticism must be as strong as his hates. It is no profession for a back—Literary Review.

Youthful Lover is Sordid.
He was ten, I was eight. He invited me to a car ride one night, and of course I accepted. He treated me to rides, bought me candy, and I had the time of my life. But my love for him faded when, the next day, he came and showed me another letter that he had kept of the things he had treated me to, and asked me to pay him back. Chicago Journal.
