

The Farmington Enterprise

W. N. MILLER, Publisher.

Published Friday of each week and entered at the Post Office at Farmington, Oakland Co., Mich., as second class mail matter.

Subscription Price.

One year in the U. S. $1.50

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1922

STATEMENT OF OWNERSHIP MANAGEMENT, ETC.

In accordance with the U. S. postal laws, Act August 24, 1912, the following statement is published as of date, October 1, 1922.

Name of Publication—The Farmington Enterprise.
Editor and Publisher—W. N. Miller.

The Owners are—W. N. Miller and Nellie A. Miller.
That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding one percent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are:

E. E. Brown, Northville, Mich.
Mergenthaler Linotype Co., Chicago, Ill.

(Signed) Mrs. W. N. MILLER, per N. A. M.

Sporn and subscribed to before me this 10th day of October, 1922.
Thos. H. McGee, Notary Public.
My commission expires Jan. 26, 1924.

THE HOME PAPER

We have learned that there are a few community newspapers in the state that are about to suspend publication because of lack of local support. Whether your local publisher is near bankruptcy or is prospering, he should have every encouragement from his constituency.

No one is perfect. No person is doing all he possibly could to do were he able to employ his talents to their fullest extent. Further, each person has his strong as well as his weak points. Most people can do one single thing better than others. One man can swing an axe, or milk a cow, or talk, or keep still a little better than his neighbors can.

Now, speaking in a personified way, it is just so with a local newspaper. There is not a single publication that is doing every thing it possibly could publishly within its territory. But it is hard, very hard, to find one of these sheets that is not functioning in at least some one of a score or more of useful ways. The very nature of the work and the very condition for keeping such an institution as the local newspaper alive presumes that a service is being rendered.

In fact, service is the only real stock in trade that a newspaper can have.

One of the things your local issue does is to tell of the happenings around home. It interprets the acts of the community to you and for the other members of the town and the surrounding country.

It brings together the extremes, the good things and the bad things, the refined and the vulgar, the prosperous and the failures, the democrats and the republicans, the pious and the boisterous, those to be emulated and those to be despised, all these are here, reviewed, not on the stake made up and powdered for show, but in actual life. Through his local sheet, the citizen sees his community as a reality, a living, breathing, working thing.

And it helps men to understand themselves and their places in the community. How much better do men know the working of their own mind and heart through reading the accounts of various acts and thoughts and aspirations of the men and women who live around the corner, or on section twenty-three. Their extreme ideas are modified and brought down to where they can find common ground upon which to build. The local newspaper has been a mighty force in driving out ignorance, superstition and suspicion and replacing it with confidence and hope in mankind.

And this, notwithstanding the fact that scandal, dishonesty, thieving, assaulting and murder are here mirrored to the public which is serves. It is the great light that shines out to the community—the light of publicity that makes hard the life of those catagorized as "sinners" and "criminals."

These unkind spirit cannot stand the light; they weaken under its searching rays.

While doing this, the local newspaper keeps the community spirit burning. It never allows the taper of community interest to go out. The merits of the local team, the abundance of resources of men and materials, the local capacity for

REGISTRATION NOTICE

FOR

GENERAL ELECTION

Tuesday, November 7, 1922

To the Qualified Electors of the Township of FARMINGTON, (Precinct No. 1)
Oakland County, State of Michigan

Notice is further hereby given that I will be at SCHROEDER'S MEAT MARKET

on

OCT. 14 and OCT. 21

A. D. 1922

From 8:00 O'CLOCK A.M. to 8:00 O'CLOCK P.M.

For the purpose of Registering all Qualified Electors who may apply for said Registration.

H. A. SCHROEDER, Township Clerk

expansion and development are everywhere reflected on the pages of this local sheet. Sometimes, yes, often, there is exaggeration, overstatement, much, but this enthusiasm keeps the Joneses and the Smiths and the Browns a little more on tip-toe for the home town. It just balances the downward pull of outside attractions and the burden imposed by the disgruntled and pessimistic individuals who form a certain small per cent of all progressive communities.

Support such an institution as the local paper? There is no alternative. No American could think otherwise. Without it democracy is impossible. The very fundamentals upon which the fathers built our great nation will give way without the free interchange of ideas, and the unhampered building of community ideas.

I believe that the work I am doing is worth while.

I believe that the interests of mankind are mutual and that business is simply organized serings.

I believe that the only way life can be made happier and living cheaper is for everyone to do his full duty.

I believe that incompetence, laziness or greed on the part of either employer or employee is a sin against the whole body of society.

I believe that if I fail to do my fair share of the world's work I shall only make life just that much harder for some other fellow who perhaps has greater handi-

I believe that the Creator gave talents to the expectation that I would use them in the service of my fellow man. Even if un- mindful of my own interests, I have no right to cheat others.

I believe that every piece of goods I help to manufacture represents a part of myself when it goes out into the world. Whether I write or file them, whether I work at a desk in a factory, or in a store, I believe in the thing I am doing and will put my best thought and effort into it.

I believe in myself and in my friends. I believe in my house. I believe in individuality in general and in the life-god in the world.

I believe that I shall receive justice and a square deal. I believe that if I do my best, if I study to improve myself, and look cheerfully upon life and its task, whatever rewards may be justly due me I shall receive.—Michigan Investor.

On Big Scale.

The Yellowstone remains the largest of our national parks and contains the greatest variety of scenic wonders.

These unkind spirit cannot stand the light; they weaken under its searching rays.

While doing this, the local newspaper keeps the community spirit burning. It never allows the taper of community interest to go out.

The merits of the local team, the abundance of resources of men and materials, the local capacity for Gold Found in Wales.

A discovery of gold has been made on a farm at Cessallan Bach, Bonadur, near Birmingham, Monmouthshire, where mining operations had been carried out for several weeks. The site of this new discovery is midway between the famous Gwynedd mines and Gwynedd gold mines, which supplied Princess Mary's wedding ring. For half a century and in the neighborhood of Bonadur has raised hopes of rich finds which have largely disappointed. So certain at one time did it appear that gold in payable quantities was to be found in North Wales that long and costly litigation ensued as to the ownership of land to which previously nobody had troubled to establish a claim.

Red Cross Gains Strength in All Foreign Fields

In insular possessions of the United States and in foreign lands the American Red Cross scored heavy gains during the last year, passing the previous membership list of 1,000,000 by 420,000 and advancing the figure to 1,420,000. The Philippines take the lead, gaining nearly 100 per cent, now having 113,917 members. In the 1921 Red Cross enrolled 11,000 with the Constantinople Chapter. Portugal, 603, a gain of 33 members. China was 1,782 in 1921, a gain of 506; the United States 1,420,000, a gain of 1,000,000. The American Red Cross has spread its membership over some 70 foreign lands and its junior membership is 554, a gain of 327 in 1921. The United States is closed at 1,420,000.

Red Cross Water First Aid Makes Life-saving Gain

More than 250 Chapters engaged in life saving or water first aid last year with the result that the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps has set a new high mark for enrollment and development. The influence of "learn to swim week" in many localities is resuscitating the water fatalities through instruction and the wider dissemination of resuscitation methods demonstrated by the Red Cross representatives. Excellent work has been done in teaching a large part of the American population how to take care of itself in the water. Growing appreciation for this Red Cross Life-Saving Service is shown by the compulsory instruction adopted in many cities for members of the police and fire departments in the prone pressure method of resuscitation.

Help to Help Others
You can give much to the Red Cross by giving an American dollar to join the American Red Cross helps you to help others who are hurt and who need relief.

Order for Publication—Probate of Will.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
The Probate Court for the County of Oakland.

At a session of said Court, held at the Probate Office in the City of Pontiac, in said County, on the 10th day of October A. D. 1922.

Present: Hon. Ross Stockwell, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of CARL BORCHART, Deceased.
Frank Borchart and Bertha Gow, having filed a petition praying that an instrument filed in said Court be admitted to Probate as the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration of said estate be granted to Frank Borchart and Bertha Gow, executors named in the will or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That the 6th day of November, A. D. 1922, at eight A. M., at said Probate Office, is hereby appointed for hearing said petition.

It is further ordered, That public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy hereof, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

ROSS STOCKWELL, Judge of Probate.
A true copy. Dan A. McGaffey, Register of Probate. 130Oct27

"Trumpet Blowing."

It is a mistake to undervalue yourself, because people are apt to take us at our own valuation. At the same time, we do not advise "trumpet blowing" as this makes a person objectionable. Try to stir the happy medium of a dignified estimation of your own powers, but don't boast about them.

Order for Publication—General.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland.

At a session of said Court, held at the Probate Office, in the city of Pontiac, in said County, on the 29th day of September A. D. 1922.

Present: Hon. Ross Stockwell, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of WILLIAM DELLING, Incompetent.
Mark C. Wixom, guardian of said incompetent having filed in said Court a petition praying for the examination and allowance of his final account, and the discharge of said guardian.

It is ordered, that the 30th day of October, A. D. 1922, at eight o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Office, be and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition.

It is further ordered, that public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

ROSS STOCKWELL, Judge of Probate.
A true copy. Dan A. McGaffey, Probate Register. 6Oct20

Order for Publication—General.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland.

At a session of said Court, held at the Probate Office, in the City of Pontiac, in said County, on the fifth day of October A. D. 1922.

Present: Hon. Ross Stockwell, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of EMMA MOORE, Deceased.
Ida Hammond, administratrix of said estate having filed in said Court a petition praying for the examination and allowance of her final account and determination of the heirs of said deceased, assignment of the residue of said estate and the discharge of said administratrix.

It is ordered, That the 6th day of November, A. D. 1922, at eight o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Office, be and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition.

It is further ordered, that public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

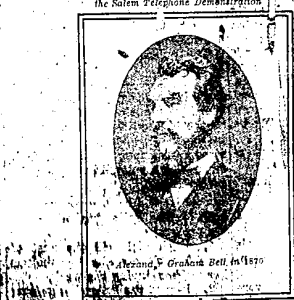

ROSS STOCKWELL, Judge of Probate.

A true copy. Dan A. McGaffey, Probate Register. 130Oct27

Bell's Telephone First Introduced to Public by Invenor's Lectures and Demonstrations

Group at Bell's Laboratory in Boston, looking at the Salem Telephone Demonstration.

Alexander G. Graham Bell in 1876.

By V. G. L. MORTON
The introduction of the telephone, by the general public, was a most interesting event, when Alexander Graham Bell, first, first, an address of his invention to the lecture course of the Franklin Institute, in Lafayette Hall, at Salem, Mass., on the 10th of January, 1876. On this occasion Bell had conceived the idea of a telephone with his room at 153 West 4th Street, in Boston. When Thomas A. Watson had come of the instrument and of the conversation at that end. Henry M. B. Bell, a reporter from the Boston Herald, was present at the demonstration, and he reported the following: "The first time that a telephone was used, it was by the inventor himself. He had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston end and the audience listened to 'April Song' and 'Tennessee Doodle.' Bell then explained to his audience how he learned to transmit the tones of the human voice over the wire and paid a great tribute to Mr. Watson for his valuable assistance in making the instrument, quickly and accurately, working the telephone. To illustrate the character of the instrument, he had a small organ connected to the wire at the Boston