

Rag-A-Muffin Players do 'The Wizard of Oz'

The Community House in Birmingham continues its live Children's Show Series when the Rag-A-Muffin Players performs its creative version of "The Wizard of Oz."

Two separate hour-long performances are scheduled, with show times at 1 and 3 p.m. on Saturday. Tickets are available at the Community House, Bates and Townsend.

Adult chaperones are in attendance during the performance.

The Rag-A-Muffin Players' use of audience participation adds a new twist to "The Wizard of Oz." Children share in the adventures of Dorothy, The Tin Man and the Scarecrow, facing the Wicked Witch of the West and trying to obtain their dreams from The Mighty Wizard.

"THE WIZARD OF OZ" was written by Stephen Nother as a stage production and will be directed by Jacqueline Janney. For further information, call The Community House at 644-5832.

As a bonus, the show includes "The Community House is adding a performance of "Hansel and Gretel" to the schedule. The classic stage play for children will be performed live April 26 by The Village Players of Birmingham.

River Crab launches brunch

Chuck Muer has announced the launching of Sunday brunch beginning Sunday and lunch beginning Tuesday at his River Crab restaurant on the St. Clair River.

Sunday brunch is served from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Brunch is priced for adults and teenagers and for children age 4-12. Children 3 and under are free.

WITH A SEAFOOD FLAIR, the brunch features several new dishes, including cold poached blue fish and salmon, potato pancakes and apple sauce, and chicken livers.

Oakway presents...

State Sen. Jack Faxon, strong supporter of the arts, will be narrator when Oakway Symphony Orchestra presents Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf." The annual cabaret concert begins at 8 p.m. Saturday, March 29, in Madonna College's Activities Building, Levan at the I-96 freeway in Livonia.

Tickets are $6 at the door or in advance from Hudson's in Northland, Westland and Oakland Mall, the college and Hammel Music in Livonia. Tables of eight ($48) and 10 ($60) are also available. Bar service and sandwiches are available from 7-11 p.m.

Soloists will include Jan Rae, soprano; Dini Valle, tenor; Victoria Haltom, concertmistress, and William Lane, principal trombonist. Guest conductors will be St. Mary Franciscan Van de Vyer, president of Madonna, and Ernest Ar Jones, advertising executive.
